Dr Helen Roseveare

ON SATURDAY 9th September we had the privilege of hearing Dr Helen Roseveare speak at our APC Annual Conference in Inverness. She gave a moving address about her conversion to Christ from a non-Christian background and then about her work in the Congo. Her underlying theme was the privilege of serving Christ and how she was constantly forced to ask the question 'Was it worth it? Of course it was.' She gave some wonderful accounts of how God works in marvelous ways to deliver His people from their difficulties. There were several wet eyes but it was a most encouraging afternoon and our faith was strengthened by hearing of God's support for His people when they suffer for Him.

Dr Wayne Pearce from Lairg also gave us a most challenging lecture in the morning on the great commission and to become "fishers of men". He pointed out the dangers of casting the net inside the boat when the fish were out on the sea! A most memorable and enjoyable day!
